Gentlemen, The below history that is going on with Mustang/Patrick contacting our broker relationships directly is very concerning. It is not "noise" as Jimmy states. We have been more than acceptable to working with Mustang and allowing them to operate their portion of the business; however we feel that these activities are detrimental to Legal-Bay's business and relationships that it has worked hard to develop.

Since last summer Legal-Bay has tried to get an understandable agreement that protects all parties. Mustang never finalized that understanding after numerous rounds of changes with lawyers. The meeting in Vegas seemingly got us on the same page, however these recent events are clear that Mustang is operating however they wish with our relationships. We feel this goes against the credit line agreement that we signed initially and remains in full force and effect.

We never introduced Mustang to Nova Funding, however Patrick has taken it upon himself to call them, do business with them, and acquaint himself with their staff. To the point that they are calling him directly now. If Mustang is deliberately doing this to make Legal-Bay obsolete or cause a rift in the relationship, then we have no choice but to deal with this seriously.

I request an immediate call to outline some ground rules and understanding.

Subject: Angela Rocha - additional funding request - offer on the table

Hello,

Good morning.

Angela Rocha is requesting an additional 5k.

I just spoke with the attorney, she confirmed there's a 750k on the table. She should be emailing me soon for a written confirmation.

Please let me know if this is doable.

Kind regards,
